

Student Participation Responsibilities
Last Updated July 24, 2015

Article Summarizer and Discussion Leader

- The article summarizer and discussion leader is responsible for providing (a) summaries of the assigned readings. The summary should consist of only the main points, interesting questions provided in the article, and specific findings of the article and (b) questions regarding assigned readings and leading the discussion in class. There should be at least 3 key discussion questions that will highlight the interesting themes introduced in the readings.

Discussion summarizer

- The discussion summarizer is responsible for summarizing class discussion and reporting it to the class. He/she needs to take notes during the discussion and prepare a verbal report by the end of the class. The discussion summarizer submits a brief summary of discussions by Thursday at 11:59pm to the instructor.